AFGANISTAN ART WEEK

Iranian National Commission for UNESCO – in commemoration of Afghanistan Art Week, entitled "Where are you father's sweetheart"-organizes a virtual exhibition of works of art in the fields of calligraphy, painting, miniature, photography, graphics, handicrafts and music (traditional instruments), from 12 to 18 December 2020.

All the artists, who were interested in participating at this exhibition, submitted their scanned works, along with a resume including name and surname, year and place of birth, history of artistic activity to the secretariat of the exhibition.

The victims of the ISIS terrorist attack inspired the theme of the art exhibition. Several gunmen attacked Kabul University, shooting at students in their classrooms and clashing with security forces for hours.
